

REPUBLICAN FARMER

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 10,

SIXTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Madison Was President and Country Was at War With Great Britain.

Napoleon Scourged Europe -- Slaves Were Owned in Bridgeport and a Reward Was Offered for the Return of a Slave Boy Owned by Enoch Foote -- McCarthy Was a Real Fighter.

March 10th fell on Wednesday in 1813, as it does this year and an old file of the Republican Farmer of that date discloses other similarities. The Farmer was then a weekly, published by Nicholas & Barnum. There are four pages of five columns each, devoted to important news and advertisements, the latter mostly legal notices and probate orders. The merchants of the town were Simon Backus, Samuel Hodges, Michael Hyde, Henry May, Caleb Beach, Charles E. Hubbard & Co., David Lacey, Enoch Foote & Co., Barnum Beach, Jesse Sterling, Harvey Page & Co., Sherman Beach and a few others, perhaps, who did not advertise but whose names are lost to posterity on that account.

These merchants sold almost everything needed at that period and the stocks almost always included a select line of rum, brandy and wines. President James Madison had been inaugurated on Thursday of the week before and his address on that occasion is given in full.

There are reports of the capture of a good portion of Napoleon's grand army at Wilna, despatches from London, Berlin, Warsaw and other European cities dated in December and January but news just the same because it was their first appearance in print. But there is no news of the war. The number is printed on hand made paper apparently as good as the day it was printed. There are no department, no woman's page, no sporting columns and no things about women's chains and their rights to vote. Instead there are appeals to the patriots to support the government in the existing war with Great Britain. On the first page appears a communication from Capt. Peter Bradley, 35th Regiment, U. S. Infantry, calling for volunteers to apply at the rendezvous at Weston, Danbury or Norwalk. A declaration by the return of a negro slave, claiming all responsibility for the war follows the patriotic call. An advertisement offers one dollar reward for the return of a negro slave, claiming all responsibility for the war follows the patriotic call. An advertisement offers one dollar reward for the return of a negro slave, claiming all responsibility for the war follows the patriotic call. An advertisement offers one dollar reward for the return of a negro slave, claiming all responsibility for the war follows the patriotic call.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY IN STRATFORD

On the night of March 17 there is to be given a grand lecture and concert in the old men's hall, in Main street, Stratford, for the benefit of St. James' Catholic church fund. The speaker of the evening will be Rev. Jeremiah Duggan of Westport, who is well known throughout the State for his efficient work as Chaplain of the State prison at Wethersfield for more than five years. He will take for his topic the "Life of St. Patrick." In connection with the lecture there is to be a concert. Arrangements have already been made with some of the leading singers of Bridgeport to take part. The choir of St. James' church will also assist.

Before the lecture there will be held the first grand parade in honor of St. Patrick which has ever taken place in Stratford. The local order A. O. H. U. No. 1, together with the entire male members of the church, also the Hibernian Rifles, headed by a band, the several divisions of the A. O. H. of Bridgeport, together with the local Heart Drum Corps will assist in the parade.

The degree team, which is the crack organization of the State, under Capt. John J. McCarthy of Div. No. 2, of Bridgeport, have been invited to take part in the parade and will appear in their beautiful uniforms and will carry their Irish pipes.

The committee has engaged the services of one of the most famous tap dancers in this part of the country.

After the arrival of the ten special trolley cars, which will run from the corner of Fairfield avenue and Main street at 7:30 to 7:45, the parade will form at Hard's corner with right turning on Stratford avenue. The line of march will be from Stratford avenue to South avenue and counter-march on Main street, arriving at the town hall at 8:25 in time for the lecture. A large quantity of green fire and also fireworks have been purchased for the occasion. It is requested that all residences along the line of march be illuminated for the occasion.

THE DIRECT PRIMARY.

Judge Perry Appears Before the Judiciary Committee.

Hartford, March 10.—The Judiciary committee yesterday afternoon gave a hearing to Judge John H. Perry of Southport and Colonels Theodore H. Macdonald and Norris G. Osborn of New Haven, members of the committee on direct primaries, upon their report and the accompanying bill.

Judge Perry explained the history of the direct primary movement and told of the states which have acts more or less wide in application. He spoke of the objections which have been urged to the plan and answered them, saying that one man was recently held up in a corner of the Capitol and asked by a man, not a legislator, whether he was a Democrat or a Republican. Judge Perry said that he understood the direct primary bill and when the latter admitted that he had not made a study of it he was told, "It means the death of the small towns and don't you forget it."

Senator Searles asked: "Assuming that I should be a candidate for some state office, would it not increase my expenses?" to which Judge Perry replied, "Not at all; it might in my case, but you would win hands down." Judge Perry added that a candidate disposed to spend money would be obliged to buy an army whereas he now only has to buy a campaign.

Senator Searles also inquired as to the primary registration provisions, saying that in one town, a small one, all the Democrats are on the balance of power in the caucus. Afterward they meet as Democrats and name their own ticket. Judge Perry said that the proposed bill was drawn with a knowledge of the evil and an effort made to stop it. Chairman Burnes asked if the fact that the primaries are to be held on the first Monday in October, the day of the two elections, would not lead to some confusion.

STIRLING GRANTED DIVORCE BY A SCOTTISH JUDGE

(Special from United Press.)

Edinburgh, March 10.—Judge Guthrie, who presided in the notorious Stirling divorce case, today handed down his decision granting John Alexander Stirling a divorce on his cross petition. Mrs. Clara Elizabeth Stirling, formerly an actress of Washington, D. C., and her husband for divorce, naming Mrs. Mabel Atherton, a famous English beauty, as co-respondent. Stirling repudiated with a cross suit saying that his wife had been unduly intimate with Lord Northland. At the hearing of the case sensational evidence was produced which created a great room dialy and showed at least a very lax moral code among the section of English society which figured in the case.

After the Scottish divorce, Guthrie's decision goes into effect at once and Mrs. Stirling loses all title to her marriage settlement while Stirling can claim a life interest in his wife's property. Stirling was given the custody of the only child.

EXPLANATION TO THE PUBLIC

The old family apothecaries, Carleton & Hovey of Lowell, Mass., established in 1827, have in their possession the old prescription book in which is filed the prescription for Father John's Medicine as written by the eminent specialist who prescribed it for the late Rev. Fr. John O'Brien of Lowell, by whom it was recommended to his friends and parishioners, and from whom it has derived its name and was advertised with his knowledge and approval. It is not a patent medicine and it is free from morphia, opium or other poisonous drugs. It makes strength and prevents pneumonia—invaluable as a tonic and body builder for weak and run down systems. Not a new medicine—50 years in use.

HARRY REID KNOWS

Read What He Says About Treatment for Bald Heads

Leverly & Bro., the druggists, do not guarantee Parisian Sage hair growth on every bald head, but if there is any life left in the roots of your hair Parisian Sage will stimulate the hair bulbs and cause your hair to grow again. Here is one case: "I am now using the second bottle of your Parisian Sage, and can notice a new growth of hair appearing. I am glad to say it is a darker color than my hair was before I became bald."—Harry Reid, 10 Manhattan St., Rochester, N. Y.

Don't wait till you're bald before using Parisian Sage—use it now. Kill the dandruff germ and prevent baldness. Leverly & Bro., the druggists, sell Parisian Sage at 50 cents a large bottle, and they guarantee it to cure dandruff, stop falling hair, and cure all diseases of the scalp, or money back. Parisian Sage is a really invigorating hair dressing; it makes the hair soft, fluffy and beautiful, and is in great demand by women who do not live near a druggist who sells Parisian Sage, you can get a bottle direct for 50 cents, all charges prepaid, from Giroux Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y.
